BABY TOOTH CARE... insures better permanent teeth for Elizabeth Ann Flores, of Torrance, six-year-old Benita St. school first grader. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. Flores, 1047 E. 220th St., she is attended by Eugene G. Lindsay, D.D.S., and Mrs. L. V. Jones, dental assistant at Gardena PTA Health Center, 1202 Magnolia Ave.

Health Center Services Six Area Schools

Children from six Torrance area schools are among the 353 patients which have visited the Gardena Health Center, 1202 Magnolia Ave. since its opening last November 25.

Dental checkups at the clinic are provided to needy students from Bonita, Carson, Del Amo, Halldale, 223rd and 232nd St. Schools from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.

Besides dental examinations and diagnosis, the clinic offers low income families eye and hearing tests, removal of diseased tonsils and adenoids, orthopaedic examination and x-rays, corrective physical education for posture problems, referrals to Orthopaedic Hospital and to the Heart Assn. for serious problems and child.

Primary purpose of the clinics, sponsored by Tenth District PTA, the Los Angeles Board of Education, and the Community Chest, is to recognize and evaluate dental and health problems in their true light, to advise parents, and help children in meeting the whole problem, according to Mrs. Ruth Jackson, health center manager.

Community Chest donations provide the health centers with 42 per cent of their operating cost. Clinic fees are based on family income and need, scaled to ability to pay, she stated.

Redondo to Head Hwy. Committee

William A. Cameron, Redondo Beach city councilman, has been named chairman of the Inter-City Highway Committee by members of the group. He will succeed Wilburn E. Baker, El Segundo councilman, who has headed the committee for several years.

Other officers include Councilman Jay Beasley, Torrance, vice-chairman, and Councilman Fred Jones, Inglewood, secretary-treasurer.

Executive board members include Seymour Siegal, Culver City; Frank R. Reid, El Segundo; Robert Kane, Gardena; P. N. Scott, Hawthorne; C. W. Shepard, Hermosa Beach; Thomas P. Foye, Manhattan Beach; and Fred Ervin, Palos Verdes Estates.

Election of the new officers and directors was held during a business meeting which followed an address by Lt. Gov. Glenn M. Anderson here last week.

JULIE HENDERSON
 Seventeen-year-old Julie B. Henderson, senior at North High School, is one of ten students to receive a four-year scholarship under a program sponsored by North American Aviation, Inc. for children of its employees.

The Torrance area winner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Henderson, 17816 Floorwood Avenue.
